ENERGY WAVE

STRENGTHENS YOUR BODY'S ENERGY!

Strengthens your body's energy!

Your personal source of energy for an energetic and healthy life!

Humans, animals and plants are permanently exposed to geomatic fault zones, electrosmog and continuous stress, which in the long term can lead to health problems (scientifically detected). It is irrelevant whether these influences are felt or not, they can harm the organism. The consequences of this long-term burden are: Sleep problems, lack of energy and listless, lack of concentration and a variety of other things including diseases.

The Geonado wave can sustainably harmonize and neutralize these fault zones for the organism and compensate it as well. It ensures well-being in all living areas and working spaces. The Geonado wave is simple, place as high as possible where it can develop its positive effect.

Impact of vibrational frequencies on the body

External circumstances such as fault zones, electrosmog, stress etc. brings people into a negative vibration range and weakens their immune system. In the long run this damages the organism and leads to illness.

That's how the Geonado wave works!

The experts from Geonado have elaborated a successful procedure which enables the wave to charge the organism permanently with a positive frequency. The human organism absorbs the healthy vibrations from the wave which protects it from the surrounding disturbance zones. This is possible due to the unique combination of the special shape of the wave (Vibration) with the informed energy chip.

Patented energy chip
(Patent AT507969B1), fixed to the shaft

Additional performance through the energy chip!

The patented energy chip is an evolution of the informed Fiole, all evidence based scientifically. Latest biophysical findings paired with the most modern technology create one unique effect.

The patented energy chip is only available from Geonado and guarantees that lasting effect of the wave.

We care for your wellbeing!

More quality of life without disturbing influences.

The Geonado Wave can be used in a variety of environments, protection against interfering zones, promote regeneration and increase the energy of life.

Energy balance Measurement in people in fault zones

Source: Dipl. Ing. Lutz Rabe

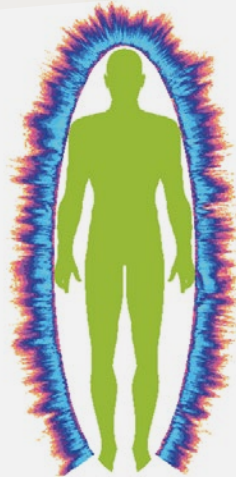

without Geonado Wave

The energy field is badly disturbed and has a big energy shortage.

The person is mentally and physically unbalanced and regenerates in a very badly condition. The performance is greatly reduced.

with the Geonado Wave

The energy field of a human is in perfect condition with the Geonado energy wave.

The energy field is closed and the person is mentally and physically balanced, the regeneration is optimal and is protected from the disturbing influences.

With the Geonado wave you have a significant increase in the Energy levels and balance.

Biomedical Proof of the Effects of Disturbance zones on the People:

Based on 135,000 Single measurements, it was detected, that stress phenomena, which effects directly the Immune system and the Cardiovascular system was reduced with the Geonado wave which harmonizes and balances the disturbance zones.

Influence of geomatic fault zones on the autonomous Nervous System:

An interdisciplinary research group examined the influence of geomatic fault zones on humans. Objective and reproducible ECG measurements showed that the Geonado Wave significantly influenced on the fault zones by harmonizing and creating a wellbeing on the humans examined.

Your experience with Geonado

Erna Hager-Klein
HOUSEWIFE

My sleep quality was severely impaired for years. That's why I decided to take sleeping medications. By chance I heard about Geonado and, contrary to my initial skepticism, decided to buy a wave. This helped me not only to a wonderful new sleeping experience (without medication), but also brought back more energy into my life. I am positive!

Family Ackermann
FARMER

Since the deployment of the Geonado Wave and since it was fitted in the stables it was pleasant to see how quiet and harmoniously the animals became. That means healthier animals, less stress and sustainable and higher quality. We recommend every farmer, to install a Geonado wave to optimize the conditions in the stables.

Wolfgang Kindl
DOUBLE WORLD
CHAMPION 2017 IN LUGE

As a performance sportsman, it is important for me to give the maximum in all areas. Through this technology from Geonado I protect myself from external disturbance zones, the regeneration phase is considerably shortened and I feel even more powerful and concentrated.

In the TamanGa health resort we have a Geonado wave installed in every house and I have so far over many years had very good experiences with it and would not want to miss it and I recommend the wave.

It is scientifically proven that there are places that can affect people and sometimes irritate them. Years of experience have shown to me - especially in small animals - that the Geonado wave can bring humans and animals back into balance in the long term on such irritating zones.
